Goals, with baseline and target numbers*

Goals should relate to the specific grant proposal. These are measurable statements of activities proposed in the grant request. When appropriate, baseline data (the current or starting level) should also be included.

Goals may be:

OUTPUTS - Direct products of the activities proposed, usually measured in terms of volume of work accomplished (for example, number of people served)

OUTCOMES - Benefits or changes to individuals, families, communities, etc. resulting from program participation (for example, percentage of individuals with a reduction in symptoms of 50% or more).
